

JENNIFER O'HARE

Jennifer R. O'Hare graduated from Oklahoma City University School of Law Cum Laude in May of 2000. Jennifer has served as Lincoln County Attorney since January of 2001 and also as County Counselor since that time. In August of 2006 she became a partner in the law firm, Metz & O'Hare, Chtd., located in Lincoln, Kansas.

Jennifer has an active practice representing individuals and advising them on leases involving wind farms. She has also had the unique experience of guiding Lincoln County when TradeWind Energy decided to build their current wind farm in that county, which included road maintenance, easement and monetary issues involved with the building and construction of that site.
